

BENNY AND THE 50 FREE BURRITOS

One day Benny and his friend Jeremy went to Chipotle's for lunch.

Jeremy had a bean burrito.
Benny had a taco with extra lettuce and cheese. When they were leaving, Benny put his business card in the fish bowl next to the cash register

The next day, a nice lady called Benny and told him that he had won 50 free burritos. But no drinks. Benny did not believe the nice lady. Are you sure they are free? Benny asked. The nice lady said yes they were free. Benny got angry and asked to speak to the manager. The nice lady said she was the manager. Benny was not angry any more.

But Teja was sad. I will not be here to eat the 50 free burritos said Teja. Will you save me a burrito? asked Teja No said Benny I will not save a burrito for you.

Benny asked all of his friends if they would help him eat 50 free burritos. Yes said Jeremy, I will help you eat 50 free burritos.
Yes said Jake, I will help you eat 50 free burritos. Yes said Fred I will eat all 50 free burritos by myself.

The next day, Benny and his freind Jeremy went to Chipotle's to pick up the 50 free burritos They met the nice lady and took her picture.

Benny gave the 50 free burritos to all of his friends. His friends ate the 50 free burritos and they were happy.

Teja ordered more business cards. He is going to go to Chipoltes and put his business cards into the fish bowl just like Benny
